NEWS,
Estancia, N. M.

Entered as second-class matter January 4, 1907, in the post-office at Estancia, N. M., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

What is the matter with the newspapers which have always been singing the praise of the "man who does things?" The statehood bill has passed the house, and not a single paper have we seen as yet ascribing the honor and glory to Andrews. The comptometer must certainly have slipped a cog, somewhere.

One of Albuquerque's merchants is advertising "Best Estancia Pink Beans." Nothing wrong about that. He couldn't get any better beans, nor a better name for them. The people will soon learn that when they want the BEST beans and potatoes, they must insist on having the "Estancia" kind.

It begins to look as if New Mexico and Arizona will be admitted to statehood, IF we draft a constitution suitable to the ideas of the Great Father back in Washington. We wonder if the Great Father will continue to treat us like Redmen, after we have become real citizens of the United States and he needs our votes in the presidential election!

The Albuquerque papers one day this week reported a potato famine in the Duke City. Here's a hint to our farmers. When the best potatoes in the country can be grown right here in the Estancia Valley, and in great abundance, there is poor excuse for a famine only sixty miles away. This season should and in all probabilities will see more spuds planted in the valley than ever before. So mote it be!

More census enumerators are needed for the taking of the 13th decennial census, the work of which will begin early this spring. Paul A. F. Walter, supervisor of Census, Santa Fe, N. M., will receive applications up till next Tuesday, January 25th. The test or examination is not difficult and anyone with ordinary common-school education and a little common sense can pass the test. All citizens of the United States, between the ages of 18 and 70, regardless of sex or political affiliations are eligible. While the pay is not large, it is remunerative and there should be no dearth of applicants. Applications should be made at once to Mr. Walter, who will advise the applicants of the necessary steps.

Often the remark is heard that prices are away up and out of sight in the Estancia Valley, but on looking around a little bit, one can soon find out that we're not so bad off, after all. In El Paso, the merchants are advertising groceries at what they are pleased to term "special prices." A few examples are: Gallon cans of fruit 40 and 45 cents; 3-lb cans fruit 15 and 20 cents; two cans tomatoes, 25 cents; corn, 15 cents per can, etc. A glance at the ads of the local merchants in this issue of the News will show where one can supply his goods at the best rates. Or look over the Albuquerque papers and compare the prices published there with those of our local merchants, and the merchants here will get your trade every time.

It Pays to Advertise in the News.

A couple of weeks ago Mr. S. H. King placed a small ad in our local column to the effect that he desired to trade Roswell property for a farm in the Estancia Valley. A few days after the paper was out he found himself besieged with buyers. The first of this week he was in the office and asked us to "kill" the ad, as the trade had been made, and he is the owner of a fine quarter section of land just north of town, well improved.

This is only another instance showing the wisdom of advertising in the News. The people read the News—not only the columns giving the news of the week, but the locals, ads and all. The News enters more homes and is read in more homes in the Estancia Valley, than any other newspaper, a statement which we can easily prove.

Have You Joined Our Family?

The subscription list of the Estancia News, the best newspaper published in the Estancia Valley, is growing nicely. Our list will soon have reached the thousand mark, which means that more copies of the News are paid for and read than any other paper in this part of the territory.

Our rate of one dollar for a year's subscription, will expire in ten days more. If you have not already had your name added to the News Family list, better do so at once or it will cost you more a little later on.

The News publishes the news of the whole Estancia Valley, which includes the whole county of Torrance, and in many publishes such news before any other paper does. At two cents per week, no home in Torrance county can afford to be without the home paper, which publishes the news.
